CLASS PROPHECY

"This should be an interesting assignment," I thought to myself as I left the editor's office and rushed to catch the plane for New York. Later, flying high above the clouds I couldn't help thinking how unusual it was that I knew so many "Successful People of the 20th Century." You see, I'm a journalist and my assignment was to report the happenings at a banquet for "Successful People." Believe it or not, most of them had been in my graduating class at Glen Alpine High. We must have learned more than we thought we did!!!

The first person I saw when I entered the hotel was Hilton Hutchins--better known to us as Wayne. He bought the famous chain of hotels with money he saved from our ice cream money. As I registered at the desk I saw a familiar face. Carolyn Patton was operating the hotel switchboard--and what a switchboard it was! She could never have done it if it had not been for her background in math.

As I hurried upstairs I passed Kenneth Ingle. He was the chief bus boy of all the Hilton Hotels. He was a success all because of the fact that he drove a bus for G.A.H.S.

After I had rested for awhile I went shopping. I was surprised when the first shop I entered was owned by Carolyn Allen. She got started in business because she had to sell her beautiful clothes to pay for another dented fender. She was so successful that she is now able to sell exclusive Paris designs by Faye Mooney. Next I stopped in Grady's Esquire Shop and sure enough, there was Donald, driving (or should I say hot-rodding it) around his store in his newest car, a Crawley Special. We always knew that math, physics--and French--would help Benny after he graduated from State! In the rear of Donald's store, Andy Giles was modeling a suit. Of course, the shop was so exclusive that Andy was only allowed to speak French. Poor Andy! He very seldom talks any more and he used to say the funniest things!!

Naturally I wanted to have my hair fixed before the "big night." So I made a quick trip by Jo Reep's very fashionable beauty salon where James Beck was giving his "Toni Special" for the low, low price of $52.22. After a hectic afternoon of shopping and talking over old times, I hopped in a cab to return to the hotel. No! Not Royce Byrd driving a cab. We made it to the hotel in nothing flat.

That night I entered the banquet hall just in time to hear Jewel Shepard play the piano. She's with the N. C. State Orchestra now. Naturally I knew who the president of the organization would be--Robert Hilliard. Robert is a millionaire now just from serving as president of various clubs. We really gave him plenty of experience.

I know Mrs. Stewart would be proud to see so many political leaders from our class. Jimmy Hemphill and Doug Dale are running on the same ballot. Yes, they have changed politics--they formed the "No Work-Know Nothing" party. The original idea comes from G.A.H.S.

The meal was delicious. It was prepared by Dolores Wise, the most famous chef in New York--and the richest. Wonder if our lunch room had any effect on her life?

After dinner came the speeches. It was obvious some of us hadn't paid attention in Mrs. Young's English Class. Of course, this wasn't true of Jean Patton, who is a world famous doctor and Geraldine Epeley, who is a reknowned history teacher at Miami University. We knew they would be "Successful People."

Also up from Florida were Richard Smith and Bill Prestwood, famous designers of the "Elite Racing Car." Judging from their suntans they must have spent most of their time racing up and down the beach. They have made carloads of money by winning races--mostly because of the excellent driving of Bob Butler and Richard Hemphill. Because Richard is so ambitious, he is teaching Norma Houk how to speak with a Southern accent. By the way, you may have read Norma's "Advice to the Lovelorn" column in your local paper.

From even farther south comes Wanda Ledford. She's doing a wonderful job of converting the Ubangi natives and Siberian monsters. I don't know what she is converting them to, though. Wanda brought three famous guides of the deep dark jungle with her. They do look vaguely familiar. Why yes--they are Jerry Stillwell, Wayne Orders, and Carroll Browning. They are famous because they never carry guns and always kill the big game with their bare hands. Wasn't it a pity about Wayne getting his hand bit off by a lion?

I couldn't help overhearing the conversation between Barbara Epley, Patsy Curtis, and Ray Kiser. It seems Barbara is a famous lady wrestler and Patsy is her manager. Of course, we all know what Ray does. He is taking bets on who will win the next match.

It seems our class really produced a crop of athletics--even if Coach did have his doubts. Lucille Queen and Anna Laura Crooks have just been voted the two best looking girls in their basketball league. And there's Tom Biggerstaff--he's still playing ball for Carolina. But he's thinking about becoming Coach at G.A. Tech.

Alice Reid is the new Golf Champion. It seems she beat her husband by two strokes. Alice has also had several song hits lately.

It seems as if the girls of our class weren't too successful in catching husbands. Toni Orders was one of the lucky ones and she's still living very happily in Glen Alpine.

That can't be Carolyn McFalls I hear--but it is!! She is very happy teaching Home Ec. at a boy's school. And sitting beside her is R.N. Carolina Finger. (Caroline's only trouble is that she forgets when to give everyone their pills). Carolyn and Caroline had both planned to teach physics, but for some strange reason changed their minds.

Not more politics! Walter Farris is Ruby Jordan's campaign manager for the president of Outer Space, Inc. Don't let Walter fool you. He made his money selling ice cream, too!

I saw Frances Crawley and her husband, Jack, sitting quietly at the end of the table. She is the owner of the chain of Crawley Food Markets.

For entertainment we had Bob Ollis, the famous singer, and Jerry Roper, a clown in Jeanette Wilson's circus.

Before returning to the hotel I stopped by Tellis Penley's Hamburger Haven (he got the idea from Gene's). Sitting in a corner booth were Phyllis Smith and Pat Scott, models for Vogue Magazine.

It had really been a wonderful day, seeing all my old classmates. And wasn't it wonderful that we were all so successful! You certainly never would have known it ten years ago.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

When we, the seniors of '59 have taken our last steps down the hall as students and the echoes have faded away, we know we will not be forgotten because of these valuable gifts we have so generously given away.

I, Carolyn Allen, leave my ability to have good parties to Maxine Parton.
I, James Beck, leave my "Toni" to Earl Bailey.
I, Tommy Biggerstaff, leave my basketball ability to Boyd Murphy.
I, Carroll Browning, leave my happy-go-lucky ways to Ronald Anderson.
I, Bobby Butler, leave my football ability to Bobby White.
I, Royce Byrd, leave my love of the Junior girls to Kenny Anderson.
I, Benny Crawley, leave my friendly smile to Tony Moses.
I, Frances Crawley, leave my ability to go steady to Sylvia Chandler.
I, Anna Laura Crooks, leave my love of Nebo boys to ~~Barbara Jaynes~~.
I, Pat Curtis, leave my forgetfulness to Glen Morris.
I, Doug Dale, leave my big mouth to Kenny Morrison.
I, Barbara Epley, leave my ability at wrestling to Marie Mathis.
I, Geraldine Epeley, leave my quiet ways to Sandra Poteat.
I, Walter Farris, leave my wild driving to Roland Carpenter.
I, Caroline Finger, leave my love of Charlotte and its people to Beckie Stamey.
I, Andy Giles, leave my cute remarks made in French to Tom Wells.
I, Donald Grady, leave my neatness and nice manners to Tommy Hancock.
I, Linda Heffner, leave my love of talking in class to Anne Eggers.
I, Jim Hemphill, leave my knack of never having a pencil to Jim Duckworth.
I, Richard Hemphill, leave my position as best looking boy in the Senior Class to Butch Hildebrand.
I, Robert Hilliard, leave this advice to anyone who sings in Mrs. Fletchers class, "Don't"
I, William Honeycutt, leave my much-talked-about walk to Randy Parks.
I, Wayne Hutchins, leave my bus, or what's left when I finish driving it, to next year's driver.
I, Kenneth Ingle, leave my ability not to worry to Melvin Houk.
I, Ruby Jordan, leave my ability to get along with the teachers to Libby White.
I, Ray Kiser, leave my good personality to Mitchell Morris.
I, Wanda Ledford, leave my love for week-ends to Nancy Duckworth.
I, Donald Lowdermilk, leave my lazy drawl to Eddie Justice.
I, Carolyn McFalls, leave my liking for State College and its contents to Jo Mull.
I, Faye Mooney, leave my peroxided hair to Patti Houk.
I, Bobby Ollis, leave my ability to be a Senior two years to Colin Brittain.
I, Toni Orders, leave my happy married life to the fortunate ones that get married.
I, Wayne Orders, leave my quiet ways to Gary Poteat.
I, Carolyn Patton, leave my habit of biting my finger nails to Becky Patton.
I, Imogene Patton, bequeath my good grades to Stanlena Quick.
I, Tellis Penley, leave my bus to my younger brother, Richard.
I, Bill Prestwood, leave Barbara into the hands of a trusted friend to be spied upon.
I, Lucille Queen, bequeath my ability to succeed to Brenda Biggerstaff.
I, Josephine Reep, leave my happy giggle to Sudie Price.
I, Alice Reid, bequeath my ability to acquire two rings, third finger, left hand, to Jackie Mull.
I, Jerry Roper, leave my laugh to James Dale.
I, Pat Scott, leave my love for bushy-headed boys, especially Clontzs', to Mindora Leonard.
I, Jewel Shepard, bequeath my love of agriculture boys to any farmgirl.
I, Phyllis Smith, leave my Homecoming title to one of the lucky Juniors.
I, Jerry Stillwell, leave my desire to take easy subjects to Alfred Davis.
I, Jeanette Wilson, bequeath my long ponytail to Linda Dickson.
I, Dolores Wise, leave my wonderful personality to Judy Arrowood.
And in closing, I, Norma Houk, leave my "r's", because I don't use them anyway.

Melvin,

It's a real pleasure having you in the music line this year. You've been a real inspiration and looking forward to seeing more of you next year.

Don't forget the Oates - golden times we had this year.

Wishing for you much success + happiness that you deserve it.

M. Thomas

May 6, 1954

Melvin, (Red!)

Another year has rolled around and I've really enjoyed classes with you. How time flies! I've had a wonderful time in school with you. I've really enjoyed being in your classes with you, especially Spanish. I'll never forget the wiener roast and all the parties we had. Do you remember the Senior Banquet (???) Melvin, you are a real pal and a whole "barrel" of fun. I'll never forget the fun we had working on the "fun-fiesta" and the "dog and kraut" supper. It was great fun working with you, and I hope you can attend the many more affairs we will have in the future. Remember the good times we had on Senior Trips. We have been together for four years, especially the last two years, so I hope you can attend the Senior Trip to Dreamland. I'm sure you will find happiness and success as a "Mease".

P.S. I almost forgot. We have been together for four years, especially the last two years, so I hope you can attend the Senior Trip to Dreamland.

"Soph. '54"

Alyce Joyce

("Mease")

(The time is now!)

Dear old Melvin!

Hasn't it been fun this year! I never knew anyone could be so darn sweet and so ~~darn~~ darn crazy at the (trust me!) same time — except Barbara, that is. There are so many things to remember about this year — and they've all been just loads of fun.

Remember Junior-Senior? That's one night I'll never forget. Poor ole' Bob's first real date and we had to goof up all the way around. Oh, well, things turned out okay, after all, I guess.

Our Greensboro trip was a couple of days to remember, too. I am, me, but that movie was churnish. I wish I hadn't have had that old cold though. Just ruined

Wednesday for me - and you too.

Gee Melv, I hope you realize how much your friendship has meant to me this year. I know you've had more than your share of trouble, Melv, but with your personality you won't have bad luck all your life. I really have ~~###~~ (again!) enjoyed getting to know you. I hope you feel the same, too.

This being our sophomore year, we have two more that I'm sure will prove even more crazy than this! In closing, Melvin, I want to wish you the very best of luck in all you do (ha!) Hope you and B.J. get along perfectly from here on out.

A true friend always,

Thanks for the nick-name Stanlena
I love it! "Little One"

Hello
Well here goes. I really don't know what to write since we have never done anything together! Ha!

Remember all of the wild parties we have had at my house while mother and daddy were in Raleigh? Well I do! Didn't we have a blast?!!!!? always remember R.M.'s down at the golf course? Isn't she a doll? Remember the p.t.'s after "bone" practice? They were fun but I think I went in the "hole" as far as moneygoes. Ha!

Well that's enough about us, but truthfully here's wishing you the most success possible in the world and that you don't have any more bad luck like on Jr. Sr. night!!!!!

A friend
Tom Dease
